PSR(IC)3 NZDF lawyer, has been trying to obtain a copy, but to no avail at this stage. We understand that the Afghans have been briefed and they, and NDS in particular, are not happy with the report. It could be quite an issue. I might find out more info at the UNAMA Ambos meeting today at 1100 our time. PSR(R)1, PSR(IC)2

Cheers

Minister's office has heard via Defence that UNAMA is planning on putting out a report on Wednesday on detainee conditions in Afghanistan. Do you have any further background on this? We will need to liaise with Defence and Ministers' offices in the next day or so to sort out some responses.

Related to this, it seems Dr Mapp was also planning to release today Kevin Riordan's report on detainees, despite our understanding that there is Ministerial disagreement on release I'm trying to get more info on this. (We had seen a copy of this, but some time ago. I will try to get another copy).

Attached email received from NZDF this morning and forwarded as a heads up VCDF has alerted Minister Mapp. NZDF is looking at the impact this will have on the detainee report, which Minister was going to issue today. However, it could be seen to give Mr Stephenson's article some credence

FRAGO = Fragmentation Order. Amendment to another superior order.
